Rachel's Tears, Hannah's Hopes

Liturgies and Prayers Related to Childbearing, Childbirth, and Loss

A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping.
Rachel is weeping for her children;
she refuses to be comforted for her children,
because they are no more.

— Jeremiah 31:15

Hannah was deeply distressed and prayed to the Lord, and wept bitterly. . . .
“O Lord of hosts, if only you will look on the misery of your servant, and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a . . . child . . . ”

— 1 Samuel 1:10–11

Introduction

This body of work provides pastoral support to those experiencing the grief, hope, uncertainty, and loss that may surround childbearing and childbirth. It is designed to promote flexibility so that pastors, liturgists, retreat leaders, and others may create occasions of prayer and opportunities for worship to meet the particular needs of the individuals seeking such resources.

Theology and Rationale

Our God is generous and generative. The gospel according to John proclaims that “All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being” (John 1:30). We are placed in a world that God proclaimed good, teeming with living creatures that swim and fly and swarm over the earth. Each is beautiful and worthy, and all life is interconnected in ways we cannot fathom. Each species reproduces itself according to its own kind, so that the cycle of life, death, and new life may continue. Human beings share with all life this capacity to reproduce, a sharing in God’s creating love. (Genesis 1–2)

Reproduction transforms human lives and relationships. Throughout the history of God’s people as related in Scripture, God promises a child to a woman, often in unlikely circumstances. The angel Gabriel tells a very young, unmarried woman she will bear God’s own Son even though she is a virgin. Women past childbearing age—most notably Sarah and Elizabeth—also find themselves granted a child they had given up hoping for. Fertility is a gift, which exposes bodies and emotions to God’s mysterious power and unfathomable purposes. But this gift can have unpredictable results. Many pregnancies are welcomed as a blessing by the family or the mother—a cause for rejoicing and new hope. However, others may precipitate crises for those involved. Sometimes individuals or couples may be faced with difficult decisions. They may well feel inadequate and overwhelmed when faced by ethical dilemmas. The Church plays a crucial role in offering spiritual guidance and support so that these challenging choices may be decided as wisely as possible, while imploring God's guidance and healing. In situations involving fertility, individuals and couples may find themselves confronted by harsh realities that can evoke a range of negative emotions, including anger or sorrow, regret or feelings of guilt. These rites and prayers provide opportunities for those so afflicted to lift up their losses and grief to our loving God. Whether mourning for dashed hopes; regretting past decisions; giving voice to feelings of rejection and anger; grieving for a child who was never born or only lived a short time, or perhaps one who was given up for adoption; these liturgies offer occasions to try to come to terms with what has happened, to create a space where grieving people pray for the strength to go on and ultimately to recover the fullness of life.

Historical Foundations

From the earliest days, birth and death have evoked awe and fear, and the rites surrounding them reflect this. Leviticus 12 specifies that a woman should wait for a set period of time after childbirth before presenting herself and her child in the Temple where an offering of a lamb and pigeon or two turtledoves is required for “purification” from the mysterious and dangerous process she has recently undergone. Luke's gospel relates that after forty days, Mary presents Jesus in the Temple in Jerusalem, in fulfillment of this rite (Luke 2:22–38). The Church of the Middle Ages took special care to protect pregnant and nursing mothers in the first period after childbirth. Women were exempt from the rules of fasting during this time, while men were expected to assume household chores that would normally be assigned to their wives. Beating a pregnant woman was subject to ecclesiastical punishment. By the eleventh century, a rite of welcoming the new mother back into the congregation after a set period following the birth (often forty days) became usual in both the Eastern and Western Church. It continues to be practiced in Orthodox communities to this day. Many historic Christian rites focus on the mother resuming her place in society and offering her thanksgiving to God for a safe delivery and a healthy child. The service often took place just before the celebration of the Eucharist, at which time the mother was encouraged to receive the sacrament. The thanksgiving for a safe delivery was offered even when the child had not survived. Miscarried infants or those who died soon after birth were baptized and given the rite of Christian burial. The British feminist theologian, Natalie Knödel, observes in her article on this subject [<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~mikef/church.html>] that this rite in its various forms makes a theological “connection between events of natural life, like the birth of a child, and the life of the church, the parish eucharist.”

Thomas Cranmer included “The Order of the Purification of Women” in the 1549 Prayer Book, following the Sarum rite which welcomed the woman back into her congregational family after childbirth. In the 1552 revision, however, the rite was renamed “The Thanksgiving of Women after Childbirth, Commonly Called The Churching of Women,” the title that persisted throughout Anglican prayer books, including the 1928 Book of Common Prayer according to the Episcopal Church. The 1979 Prayer Book contains “A Thanksgiving for the Birth or Adoption of a Child.” In the 1552 rite, the rubrics specify that the mother “shall kneel down in some convenient place, nigh unto the place where the table standeth,” indicating the sacredness of the event by her proximity to the altar. The rubric also states that she should “receyue the holy Communion” at this time. Once again, the support of the Church is offered her whether or not her child survived. Thus, rites for a woman who has endured the risks involved with the reproductive process have been present in Prayer Books throughout Anglican history.

Biblical and Theological Foundations

These rites and prayers draw significantly on the biblical tradition of lament as well as rejoicing. Scripture offers many examples of humans raging against God and against the circumstances of their lives. Often those who do so have a particularly intimate relationship with their Creator: Rachel, David, Hannah, Job, and many of the prophets—to name only a few—who love and are loved by God. Nevertheless, circumstances bring them to cry out to God in anger, misery, fear, or deep mourning. In particular, the Wisdom tradition, including the book of Job and the Psalms, invites us to voice our grief and anger, secure in the faith that a compassionate God hears our cries and will respond. The divine action may not always be what we hope for or expect; nonetheless it is important for our relationship with God to voice our honest reactions, even anxiety, grief, anger, and doubt. Throughout Scripture, we hear God's people crying and lamenting. Too often, pastoral care givers try to resolve grief by overly quick reassurances or by telling the sufferer that "This is all for the best." Such advice represses feelings that must be brought to the surface. It is better to assure the afflicted that God hears the cries of the despairing and is present throughout the turmoil of grief. Psalm 88 in particular offers a clear biblical precedent for such lament that does not turn too quickly to hope, from its opening:

*O Lord, my God, my Savior, **
by day and night I cry to you.

to its stark conclusion:

*My friend and my neighbor you have put away from me, **
and darkness is my only companion.

We can candidly express our feelings to our God who promises never to forsake us. Some of the foundational principles that allow for lament are:

- ◆ God created everything, and pronounced all creation good. But in the Fall, sin entered the world, bringing separation from God and death. Nonetheless, God continues to be merciful. As we say in the words of Eucharistic Prayer A: “In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.” In that reconciliation, which takes place through the sinless Christ’s death for our sins—“the righteous for the unrighteous” (1 Peter 3:18)—God has “graciously accepted us as living members” of Jesus Christ, and made us heirs of his eternal kingdom. As children of God, we acknowledge that God knows our hearts. It is necessary to be honest with ourselves and with God to sustain this vital relationship, even when we feel “negative” emotions. No part of human experience, including our physical experience, is hidden from God.
- ◆ Jesus reached out to all people in whatever stage of joy, grief, rage, faith, unbelief, or shame he met them, in order that he might reconcile them to himself. Following his example, the Church acknowledges the full range of human emotions, working in Christ to heal what is broken and comfort what is hurting. All who come may experience God’s healing love. “For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.” (Romans 8:38–39)
- ◆ Human emotions, including grief, loss, and failure, may be the impetus for transformation through deeper reconciliation with our loving God. “We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn within a large family.” (Romans 8:28–29)

Therefore we look for healing and hope to come from even the most difficult and painful experiences. This is not to diminish the pain that is felt, but in acknowledgement that Christ experienced the full measure of human suffering. Thus we may find transformation even in the deepest agonies of human existence.

- ◆ God’s love for us remains steadfast regardless of how many times we fail. Christ forgives even human complicity in his death. As he conquered sin and death for us, his forgiveness is unconditional if we but seek it. Only we can choose to reject his forgiveness. Therefore, when our actions bring sorrow or sin, we can repent, fully trusting God to redeem us in compassion, forgiveness, and mercy. In this way, we believe that through confidence in the Love that brought us into being, even our greatest tragedies or our most sinful acts cannot separate us from God. The hope of new life is always present even in our darkest hours. We are promised that in the fullness of time God will wipe away all tears. A new heaven and earth will restore all that was broken and lost in the light of the holy and undivided Trinity whose nature is Love.

About the Liturgies

In providing liturgies of lament, remembrance, and hope, the church offers opportunity for people to acknowledge their grief and receive assurance of God's presence, even in the midst of unspeakable pain.

Beginning the service in silence and darkness creates space for expressions of bereavement and loss to be voiced and acknowledged. All these liturgies have been shaped to facilitate movement from darkness to light, from silence to song, from minor key to major key, from lament to expressions of hope. Those who plan them are nevertheless cautioned not to make this transition too quickly, or to create too great a contrast. If lament is hurried over, the effect may well be to discourage and suppress deep-seated feelings of grieving and loss. Especially in the early stages of grief, or when grief has been discouraged, the bereaved will find a degree of comfort merely by being permitted a safe place to give voice to their actual feelings, rather than being urged to keep up a front or "get over it." At the same time, planners should never assume they fully understand the feelings of the bereaved or try to put words in their mouths. For this reason, the language of Scripture, especially the Psalms and Lamentation, are always appropriate, as they provide a wide range of emotions more fully expressed than any words most of us are capable of expressing. The ultimate aim of these rites is to provide assurance that God is present with us even in the darkest places of pain, even when we cannot sense that presence through our feelings. The most hopeful proclamation may not be that "everything will be fine," but that God feels the anguish of those who grieve and does not abandon us.

The liturgies that follow are intended for use with families and communities where grief remains acute, or at particular times of the year that trigger memories and emotions of profound losses of the past. Examples include religious and secular holidays, including Christmastime, All Saints' Day, Mother's and Father's Day, the expected due date, the child's birthday, or on the anniversary of the loss. For many centuries, and even today in certain cultures, observing the anniversaries of the death of beloved family members and friends permits a reminder that death does not separate us and provides catharsis for mourning and the assurance for the living that we have not forgotten those who have gone before us.

A Template for Communal Worship, Form 2

This form is particularly suitable for times of deep grief, or in times of decision-making. Liturgy based on this form creates a kind of container for grief and hope, despair and trust, uncertainty and confidence all at once. It invites worshipers to enter and rest in the darkness of grief and/or uncertainty, trusting that God is present even in our darkest hours. This model emphasizes openness to the present moment. It may be compared to the Jewish tradition of “sitting Shiva” with the bereaved.

The service is organized around an interplay of psalms, singing, prayer, readings, and silence. Darkness and candlelight are essential elements. Incense may be used.

The psalms, readings, and hymns should be chosen for their similarity to one another. They should be variations on a theme, reinforcing the unifying idea, coming at the central issue from different angles.

There may be slight movement from despair to hope, from uncertainty to decision, or from darkness to light. But planners are cautioned to not try to wrap things up too neatly. This template in particular honors the process rather than announcing the ending.

Silence should surround each element

Psalm or opening sentences

Song or hymn

Readings from Scripture

May include readings from other sources

Prayers

Ritual action

Each element may occur one or more times, weaving together in a tapestry that gathers up and holds the presenting issue. Specific suggestions for hymns, Scripture readings, and prayers are included in the appendices, beginning on page 71.

I will be exalted in the earth.”

the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

*Psalm 22:15–21 or Psalm 88:1–10 may be substituted.
See appendix A (pages 71 – 78) for additional suggestions.*

One of the following, or some other suitable passage of Scripture (see appendix A, pages 71 – 78) is read:

Thus says the Lord: As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bodies shall flourish like the grass; and it shall be known that the hand of the Lord is with his servants. Isaiah 66:12a, 13–14a

Surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope. Then when you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you. When you search for me, you will find me; if you seek me with all your heart, I will let you find me, says the Lord.

Jeremiah 29:11-14a

The Lord waits to be gracious to you; he will rise up to show mercy to you. For the Lord is a God of justice; blessed are all those who wait for him. Truly, O people in Zion, inhabitants of Jerusalem, you shall weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry; when he hears it, he will answer you. Though the Lord may give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your Teacher will not hide himself any more, but your eyes shall see your Teacher. And when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left, your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, "This is the way; walk in it." Isaiah 30:18-21

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. Proverbs 3:5-6

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this tent we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling—if indeed, when we have taken it off we will not be found naked. For while we are still in this tent, we groan under our burden, because we wish not to be unclothed but to be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as guidance. So we are always confident, even though we know while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord—for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. 2 Corinthians 5:1-9

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. 1 Peter 1:3–9

Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for bread, will give a stone? Or if the child asks for a fish, will give a snake? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him! Matthew 7:7–11

At that time Jesus said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.” Matthew 11:25–29

At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?” He called a child, whom he put among them, and said, “Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever becomes humble like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me. Take care that you do not despise one of these little ones; for, I tell you, in heaven their angels continually see the face of my Father in heaven. What do you think? If a shepherd has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray? And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray. So it is not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost.” Matthew 18:1–5, 10–14

Silence may follow the reading.

A hymn or canticle may be sung. (See appendices A, pages 71 – 78, and B, pages 79 – 85, for suggestions.)

Prayers may be offered. (See pages 54 – 70 for suggested prayers.)

The Lord’s Prayer

Concluding Collect

God of Life, you give us life and hope. Be with us in the chaos of this time. Calm our fears, be the light for our path, and strengthen our trust in your promise never to leave or forsake us. We pray through Christ, in the power of your Holy Spirit. Amen.

Blessing of a Pregnant Woman

This blessing may be offered at any time and in any place. If the blessing is to include friends and family, the priest may begin with these or similar words:

We have gathered today to implore God's grace upon N., and to seek divine mercy for her and her expected child.

- V. God is our refuge and strength
R. A very present help in trouble.
V. She shall not be overthrown
R. God shall help her at the break of day.
V. Hear our prayer O God.
R. Let our cry come to you.
V. May God be with you.
R. And also with you.

Let us pray.

Loving God, by your grace the virgin mother of your incarnate Son visited her cousin Elizabeth in their pregnancies. May this visitation encourage N. in her pregnancy and give her confidence in your mercy and loving-kindness, through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, who lives and reigns with you, and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. (After the collect for the Visitation, BCP p. 240)

or this

Eternal God, creator of all, and source of all goodness and hope; hear the prayer of N., who bids your blessing for the preservation of the child you have given her to conceive. Continue your care for her, that by your mercy her child may come safely to birth in good time, and be whole and healthy, so that they both may come to rejoice in your loving-kindness, who holds all our souls in life and sealed the salvation of your world in the gift of the birth of Jesus Christ. Amen. (SSJE Manual)

Here the woman may be sprinkled with holy water and/or anointed

Then may be said one or more of the following Psalms: 67, 113, or 117

V. Let us bless the Holy, Blessed, and Glorious Trinity, one God.

R. Let us praise and magnify our God for ever.

V. May God be with you.

R. And also with you.

Let us pray.

Gracious God, visit your daughter N., as she waits the birth of her child. Protect her from all that might threaten her and her child; let your holy angels be with them to preserve them in your peace, and let your blessing be ever upon them, in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen

or this

Loving God, giver of life, hear our prayer for N. and for the child she has conceived, that, by your grace, they both may come in safety to a timely and healthy birth, and rejoice in your gracious providence. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

When appropriate, any or all of the following may be added:

Blessed are you, loving God. You have blessed the union of N. and N. Amen.

Blessed are you, merciful God. May your blessing be upon N. and the child she carries. Amen.

Blessed are you, gracious God. May this time of pregnancy be for N. and N. a time of drawing nearer to you and to each other. Amen.

Blessed are you, holy God. May N. and N's. experience of birth be full of awe, wonder, and the joy of sharing in your creation. Amen.

or this:

The blessing of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit be upon you and your child and bring you both through a safe and happy birth. Amen.

A Rite for Mourning the Loss of a Pregnancy

Concerning the Service

This liturgy is intended for use by people who have experienced the loss of a pregnancy through miscarriage. It may be adapted for other situations.

The loss of a pregnancy is often experienced as the loss of a child. The parents’ grief may be compounded by the sadness of not having seen or held the child to whom they were committed. Since the loss of a pregnancy in our culture and even in the Church is seldom acknowledged as a death, the parents have too often been left to mourn in isolation.

Grief for the loss of an unborn child should be honored. Healing may be facilitated through the ministry of the Church.

One or more objects associated with babies may be placed in the sight of the people.

The Gathering of the People

Music may be played or sung, or Scripture read, as the people gather.

The presider reads one or more of the following opening sentences (or another opening sentence from the suggestions in appendix A, pages 71 – 78).

God will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom. Isaiah 40:11

The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. Deuteronomy 33:27 (KJV)

As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you, says the Lord. Isaiah 66:13a

For these things I weep; my eyes flow with tears . . . But you, O Lord, reign forever; your throne endures to all generations.
Lamentations 1:1 6a; 5:19

The Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Revelation 7:17

The presider welcomes the people, and states briefly the purpose of the gathering, using these or similar words:

Here in God's presence we gather with N. [and N.] to mourn the loss of their child, and to support them in their grief. Because their child died before birth, their family is diminished and their hope has turned to sorrow. Let us grieve with them, and call on God in the name of Jesus Christ, our crucified and risen Savior who sent his Spirit to comfort and heal.

The Collect

Let us pray.

Compassionate God, you hold us in your constant love. Comfort us as we grieve the loss of this child who never was born. Be with N. [and N.] in their anguish. Grant to their child, [N.], the joys of heaven; and to each of us, bring healing and grace. Renew our hopes for the future and our faith in your goodness. We pray through Jesus Christ, who carries all our sorrows and brings us from death to new life. Amen.

or this

O God, who gathered Rachel's tears over her lost children, hear now the sorrow and distress of N. [and N.] for the death of her expected child. In the darkness of loss, stretch out to her the strength of your arm and renewed assurance of your love; through your own suffering and risen Child Jesus. Amen. (From Enriching Our Worship 2)

or this

Heavenly Father, your love for all children is strong and enduring. We were not able to know N. as we had hoped. Yet you knew her growing in her mother's womb, and she is not lost to you. In the midst of our sadness, we thank you that N. is with you now. Amen. (From Enriching Our Worship 2)

A Reading from Scripture

See appendix A (pages 71 – 78) for suggested readings.

Hymn, Psalm, or Canticle

The following canticle, or Canticle F "A Song of Lamentation," Canticle H "A Song of Hosea," or Canticle I "A Song of Jonah," from Enriching Our Worship 1 may be said or sung, or a suitable hymn may be sung. One of the following Psalms may be substituted: 13; 27:12–18; 38:6–11.

A Song of Christ's Goodness Anselm of Canterbury

Jesus, as a mother you gather your people to you; *
you are gentle with us as a mother with her children.
Often you weep over our sins and our pride, *
tenderly you draw us from hatred and judgment.
You comfort us in sorrow and bind up our wounds, *
in sickness you nurse us and with pure milk you feed us.
Jesus, by your dying, we are born to new life; *
by your anguish and labor we come forth in joy.
Despair turns to hope through your sweet goodness; *
through your gentleness, we find comfort in fear.

Your warmth gives life to the dead, *
your touch makes sinners righteous.
Lord Jesus, in your mercy, heal us; *
in your love and tenderness, remake us.
In your compassion, bring grace and forgiveness, *
for the beauty of heaven, may your love prepare us.

The following litany may be said.

Litany of Remembrance

[Adapted from the Reform Jewish Prayer Book]

Memories of N. will come to us, unbidden, sometimes unexpected, in all the various moments of our lives. Although memories may bring pain, they also bring comfort—for as long as we remember,
N. is still part of us.

Silence may be kept. The name(s) of lost children may be spoken aloud.

In the rising of the sun and its going down,
we remember her.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of Winter,
we remember her.

At the opening of buds and in the rebirth of Spring,
we remember her.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of Summer,
we remember her.

At the rustling of leaves and the beauty of Autumn,
we remember her.

At the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember her.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember her.

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember her.

When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember her.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember her.

After a period of silence, the presider may say

Merciful God, look with pity upon the sorrows of this family for whom we pray. Remember them in your mercy; nourish them with patience; comfort them with a sense of your goodness; lift up your countenance upon them; and give them peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This anthem or some other suitable anthem, or a hymn may be sung or said

Give rest, O Christ, to your child with your saints
where sorrow and pain are no more,
neither sighing, but life everlasting.

The Commendation

We commend to your mercy, O God, our child N., that death may be for her the gate of life and peace with you. At your heavenly banquet, may we rejoice with her and all your children to see you face to face, one holy and undivided Trinity in glory everlasting.
Amen.

Give rest, O Christ, to your child with your saints
where sorrow and pain are no more,
neither sighing, but life everlasting.

The following anthem may be added.

Into paradise may the angels lead you. At your coming may the martyrs receive you and bring you into the holy city, Jerusalem.

The Dismissal

Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia. Alleluia.
Thanks be to God. Alleluia. Alleluia.

A Rite of Repentance and Reconciliation for an Abortion

Introduction

Sometimes people feel themselves carrying unresolved guilt over an abortion, or mishaps of pregnancy and infertility. Relationships can also be damaged in these processes. We recognize that all of these situations have a tragic dimension and call for great pastoral sensitivity to the needs of the woman and others involved. The Episcopal Church recognizes “all abortion as having a tragic dimension, calling for the concern and compassion of all the Christian community.” While affirming the legal right to have an abortion, nevertheless, Resolution A054 of the 1994 General Convention of the Episcopal Church goes on to say, “as Christians we believe strongly that if that right is exercised, it should be used only in extreme situations” (see appendix E for Resolution A054). The Episcopal Church recognizes a range of opinion among its members that allows individuals to examine their own consciences, preferably “with the advice and counsel of members of the Christian community.” All options should be explored and “it is the responsibility of members of this Church, especially the clergy, to become aware of local agencies and resources which will assist those faced with problem pregnancies.”

A woman who repents an abortion is to be received like any other penitent. Her sense of loss and remorse should be honored. It is the church’s role to assure her of God’s redeeming love and forgiveness, to promise her that her burden is removed because she has asked for God’s mercy, and that grace and newness of life will be hers. (See appendix E, Resolution D083.)

Christ has given his Church power to absolve sins. If a formal confession is to be made, and absolution granted, this must be done by a priest. Another Christian may be asked to hear the confession, but it must be made clear to the penitent that absolution will not be pronounced; instead, a declaration of forgiveness is provided. Either of the two forms of The Reconciliation of a Penitent (pages 447 and 449 of the Book of Common Prayer) or else the following rite is appropriate.

Should a couple wish to participate in this rite together, the presider should adapt the words to include the man as well as the woman. If a man wishes to repent of a decision he made regarding an abortion, the rite may be adapted for that purpose as well.

The service may also be adapted for corporate use, as seems appropriate to the circumstance: for instance, a ministry for counseling women who have had abortions might change this to accommodate a group rather than an individual.

A Rite of Repentance and Reconciliation

The priest says

My sister, what do you seek?

The penitent answers

My past actions weigh heavily upon me. I seek God's forgiveness and renewal in my life.

If the woman desires to address directly what burdens her, she may do so here.

The priest may then say

Listen to the words of Christ Jesus from the Gospel according to Luke:

"Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance." Luke 15:3b-7

My sister, God rejoices that you have come seeking God's merciful forgiveness. Let us say this psalm together.

Priest and penitent together

- 1 Happy are they whose transgressions are forgiven, *
and whose sin is put away!
- 2 Happy are they to whom the Lord imputes no guilt, *
and in whose spirit there is no guile!
- 3 While I held my tongue, my bones withered away, *
because of my groaning all day long.

- 4 For your hand was heavy on me day and night; *
my moisture was dried up as in the heat of summer.
- 5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you, *
and did not conceal my guilt.
- 6 I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord." *
Then you forgave me the guilt of my sin.
- 7 Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in time of trouble; *
when the great waters flow, they shall not reach them.
- 8 You are my hiding-place; you preserve me from trouble; *
you surround me with shouts of deliverance.
- 9 "I will instruct you and teach you in the way that you should go; *
I will guide you with my eye." Psalm 32:1-9

The penitent may tell her story, using the form below or similar words. If she has already talked about her experience in counseling before the rite, she may briefly restate the cause of pain for which she seeks reconciliation.

I confess my transgressions to the Lord. Here, in the presence of Almighty God, the Church, and you, I acknowledge my faults, especially_____. I mourn the life that was within me that I let go. I am haunted by what might have been. I humbly beg forgiveness of God and of Christ's Church.

Here the priest may offer words of comfort and counsel.

The priest then pronounces absolution using one of the following forms

May God who knows the depths of our hearts and yet abounds in mercy grant you forgiveness and healing, and the strength and comfort of the Holy Spirit, through the intercession of Jesus Christ our Advocate. Amen.

or

May God forgive you all your sins, that you may enter into the new and everlasting life promised you through Christ our great High Priest, enlivened by God's Holy Spirit dwelling in you now and for ever. Amen.

If the officiant is a deacon or lay person, the following declaration of forgiveness is used.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, who offered himself to be sacrificed for us, forgives your sins by the grace of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The officiant may conclude with the following

Now there is rejoicing in heaven; for you were lost, and are found; you were dead, and are now alive in Christ Jesus our Lord. God's arms are open for you and for your child, for Christ offered himself to be sacrificed for our sins, which are washed away in repentance. Go in peace to love and serve God all your days. And pray for me, a sinner. Amen.

A candle may be lighted, as a sign of God's promise of new life.

A Liturgy of Lament and Remembrance

For Loss of Children through Miscarriage, Stillbirth, Abortion, Placing for Adoption, or Inability to Conceive

This service follows Form 1, described on page 8.

Concerning the Service

Lament is the heart's expression of grief, an essential element in our conversation with God. Throughout Scripture, men and women pour out their grief and loss to God who hears and comforts them in their loss. Jesus wept for the death of his friend, Lazarus, and we should feel confident that when we pour out our sorrow, Christ knows our pain and is present in our suffering, ready to walk with us through the long process of bereavement and to bring healing in the fullness of time. The loss of an anticipated child plunges us from joyful expectation of new life to bereavement. We must mourn a loss before we can continue our journey towards new life.

This Liturgy of Lament provides a reminder to the participants that God understands our feelings of sorrow or anger, and can be trusted to hold us in love and heal us in the fullness of time, restoring our hope and trust. The rite provides worshipers opportunities for tears, for times of speaking and times of silence. The space chosen should accommodate enough freedom of movement so that those gathered may sit, stand, kneel, or even lie down. Pauses may be made in the litany when people are overcome by emotion. This service should be planned with pastoral sensitivity that respects the depth of grief, and gently points to a new confidence in God's healing love.

The Gathering of the People

The ministers enter in silence.

One or more of the following is read (or some other opening sentences; see appendix A, page 71)

A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping.
Rachel is weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more. Jeremiah 31:15

2 Have pity on me, Lord, for I am weak; * heal me, Lord, for my bones are racked.

3 My spirit shakes with terror; *
how long, O Lord, how long?

4 Turn, O Lord, and deliver me; *
save me for your mercy's sake.

6 I grow weary because of my groaning; * every night I drench my bed and flood my couch with tears.

7 My eyes are wasted with grief. *
Psalm 6:2-4, 6-7a

1 O Lord, my God, my Savior, *
by day and night I cry to you.

2 Let my prayer enter into your presence; *
incline your ear to my lamentation.

3 For I am full of trouble; *
my life is at the brink of the grave.

4 I am counted among those who go down to the Pit; *
I have become like one who has no strength;

5 Lost among the dead, *
like the slain who lie in the grave,

6 Whom you remember no more, *
for they are cut off from your hand.

Psalm 88:1-6

Then follows the Litany of Complaint, or some other suitable litany or prayer.

Litany of Complaint

Each worshiper should adopt the posture most helpful to the full expression of his or her grief.

Leader Hear the cries of your people, O God.
People We will lament and not hold back.
We will refuse to be comforted
until we have made known to you our sorrow.
We are bereft.

Leader Our souls cleave to the dust.
People Our eyes are wasted with grief.
We are drenched with tears.
Our hearts melt like wax.

Leader Our souls melt away for sorrow.
People We are poured out like water.
Our bodies are racked.

Leader Our eyes have failed for watching for your promise.
People When will you comfort us?
Leader We open our mouths and pant in pain.
People Why do you stand so far off, O Lord, and hide yourself in time of trouble?

Leader Our eyes shed streams of tears.
People Our indignation consumes us.
Leader We cry out to you.
People We grow weary with our groaning.
Leader Early in the morning we call to you.
People Let our cry come before you, O Lord.
Deliver us according to your promise of mercy.

A brief silence is kept.

Leader O Lord, we wait for you.
People More than sentries wait for the morning,
our souls wait for you alone.

A hymn or song of lament may be sung.

Silence may be kept.

Leader        Let us pray.

Gracious God, the comfort of all who sorrow, the strength of all who suffer: Let the cry of those in misery and need come to you, that we may find your mercy present with us in all our afflictions; give us strength for the sake of him who suffered for us, your son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Ministry of the Word

The people are seated.

The readings should include at least one from Scripture. If Eucharist is to be celebrated, the readings must include one from the Gospel. A psalm, hymn, or silent reflection follows each lesson. See appendix A beginning on page 71 for suggested Scripture readings. Suggested hymns are in appendix B, pages 79 – 85.

A homily may be preached.

The Healing Action

If there is to be laying on of hands [and anointing], the following form is used.

If oil for anointing is to be blessed, the priest says

Blessed are you, O God, source of life and health. In Jesus you became flesh and came to know the depth of human suffering. You sent the disciples to heal those who were sick. Sanctify this oil that all who are anointed with it may be healed, strengthened, and renewed, by the power of your Holy Spirit. Amen.

The minister may introduce the laying on of hands [and anointing] with these or similar words

The ministry of Jesus invites us to new life in God and with each other. In the laying on of hands [and anointing] we proclaim the Good News that God promises to restore us to wholeness in Christ. You are invited to offer yourself and ask for healing in the name of the holy and undivided Trinity.

The minister may invite each person to be anointed to give her or his name and any particular request for prayer. The minister then lays hands upon each person [and anoints the person], prays silently, then prays aloud using one of the following forms or similar words

N., I [anoint you and] lay my hands upon you in the name of God the holy and undivided Trinity. May Christ be present with you to comfort you, to guard and protect you, and to keep you in everlasting life. Amen.

or this

N., I lay my hands upon you [and anoint you] in the name of our Savior Jesus Christ, praying you will be strengthened and filled with God's grace, that you may know the healing power of the Spirit. Amen.

The minister may add, in these or similar words

As you are outwardly anointed with this holy oil, so may our loving God give you the inward anointing of the Holy Spirit. Of God's bounty, may your suffering be relieved, and your spirit, mind, and body restored to grace and peace. May all of us in the frailty of our flesh know God's healing and resurrecting power. Amen.

The Memorial

Mourners may be given time to tell of their loss, grief, or memories.

Symbols of loss and grief may be spoken of or placed on an altar.

There may be silence, journal writing, or the creation of memorial objects.

The Prayers of the People

Litany of Lament

In place of the Litany of Lament, the Litany of Remembrance and Lament, Healing and Hope on page 42, or another litany, may be used.

Leader God, hear our prayer,
People And let our cry come to you.

Leader Merciful God, we come to you in sorrow.
Help us to grieve; let our tears flow; and look upon our broken hearts.

People God, hear our prayer,
And let our cry come to you.

Leader We have lost children. We have lost hope. We have lost our way.
Consider our losses.

People God, hear our prayer,
And let our cry come to you.

Leader Our faith has been shaken.
We are haunted by memories and weighed down with guilt.

We are sick with sadness, weak with despair.
Help us know your presence.
God, hear our prayer,
People And let our cry come to you.

Leader In our suffering, we turn away from those who suffer also.
Our bonds have been strained, one with another.
Show us your compassion and help us forgive others and feel their sorrows.

People God, hear our prayer,
And let our cry come to you.

Leader        We longed for [this child], but our bodies betrayed our hopes.
                          Help us surrender them, and trust in your faithfulness.
                          God, hear our prayer,
People        And let our cry come to you.

Leader        Help us envision a future filled with promise, even if we cannot know what lies in store for us.
                          Help us have confidence in your love as we take each new step.
                          God, hear our prayer,
People        And let our cry come to you.

The leader or presiding minister concludes with this collect:

Lord of all mercies: abide with us when the darkness deepens and we suffer loss, pain, and grief. Help us to know and understand you are with us even when we cannot feel your presence. Let your saving help shine through the shadows as you hold your cross before our eyes, reminding us that you share our sufferings and have overcome death so that we might rise again with you. Let morning break upon our sorrowing hearts; abide with us in life and in death, Lord, so that we may live in your peace and rejoice in your love. Amen.

The following psalm of deliverance may be said by all. Or another psalm may be said; see suggestions on page 77.

- 1 In you, O Lord, have I taken refuge; *
    let me never be ashamed.
- 2 In your righteousness, deliver me and set me free; *
    incline your ear to me and save me.
- 3 Be my strong rock, a castle to keep me safe; *
    you are my crag and my stronghold.
- 4 Deliver me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, *
    from the clutches of the evildoer and the oppressor.

- 5 For you are my hope, O Lord God, *
my confidence since I was young.
- 6 I have been sustained by you ever since I was born;
from my mother's womb you have been my strength; *
my praise shall be always of you.
- 12 O God, be not far from me; *
come quickly to help me, O my God.
Psalm 71:1-6, 12

The Eucharist

If the Eucharist is not to be celebrated, the Lord's Prayer may be said here. If the Eucharist is to be celebrated, the service continues with the Peace.

The Blessing

This or another blessing may be offered at the end of the service:

May God, our Creator, fill you with peace. Amen.
May Christ, our Savior, redeem all your sorrows. Amen.
May the Holy Spirit, our Comforter, heal and restore you. Amen.

The service may end in silence, or with the singing of a hymn.

Worshipers may be invited to remain in the worship space for as long as they wish, in prayer and reflection. Pastoral caregivers should be available for those who experience intense grief, having perhaps expressed their lament aloud for the first time.

A Liturgy of Remembrance and Lament

For Reproductive Loss

This service follows Form 2, described on page 9.

This may be adapted for other community crises such as the murder of a child, a school shooting, or the death of teenagers in a car accident when the community at large is affected.

The service begins in darkness; the Paschal Candle may be lit before the people gather, or as the service begins. A small candle or other light is provided for the reader.

Out of the silent darkness, the first psalm is read.

Psalm 69:1-4, 15-18

- 1 Save me, O God, *
for the waters have risen up to my neck.
- 2 I am sinking in deep mire, *
and there is no firm ground for my feet.
- 3 I have come into deep waters, *
and the torrent washes over me.
- 4 I have grown weary with my crying;
my throat is inflamed; *
my eyes have failed from looking for my God.
- 15 In your great mercy, O God, *
answer me with your unfailing help.
- 16 Save me from the mire; do not let me sink; *
let me be rescued from those who hate me and out of the deep waters.

17 Let not the torrent of waters wash over me, neither let the deep swallow me up; *
do not let the Pit shut its mouth upon me.

18 Answer me, O Lord, for your love is kind; *
in your great compassion, turn to me.

Silence

Candles may be lit from the Paschal Candle. A few lights may be turned on.

Song or Hymn

Suggested: Within our darkest night (Taizé)
Commit thou all that grieves thee (The Hymnal 1982)
Abide with me (The Hymnal 1982)
Stay with me (Taizé)

The people may sit or kneel.

During the singing, pictures and other symbols of grief and loss may be brought forward and placed on the altar.

Silence

Psalm 130 may be read in unison

- 1 Out of the depths have I called to you, O Lord;
Lord, hear my voice; *
let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.
- 2 If you, Lord, were to note what is done amiss, *
O Lord, who could stand?
- 3 For there is forgiveness with you; *
therefore you shall be feared.

- 4 I wait for the Lord; my soul waits for him; *
in his word is my hope.
- 5 My soul waits for the Lord,
more than watchmen for the morning, *
more than watchmen for the morning.
- 6 O Israel, wait for the Lord, *
for with the Lord there is mercy;
- 7 With him there is plenteous redemption, *
and he shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

Silence

One to three readings are read, including at least one from Scripture.

Silence follows each reading; a song or hymn may be sung following each reading.

A homily may be preached.

The following litany, or another litany or prayers, may be said.

Litany of Remembrance and Lament, Healing and Hope

The prayers are arranged so that different intercessors may lead the various sections, each of which addresses a particular pastoral need. The liturgist or leader may choose to omit some petitions or entire sections. Usually, parts I and V should be included.

The prayers gather up the corporate lament of a community. Individuals may not share all the feelings voiced by the prayers, yet in praying together the community gives voice to all of its members.

The prayers are introduced with these words:

Compassionate God, Father of our Savior Jesus Christ, you know our deepest pain and sorrow. Behold the anguish of our broken dreams, and let our cry come to you.

I

Leader We are crushed, afraid, and overwhelmed by what we cannot understand.

People      Living God, be with us in our pain.

Leader We are weary of weeping, sick with despair, aching with emptiness.

People Living God, be with us in our pain.

Leader We are confused and angry, but you do not answer.

Psalm 116

- 1 I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, *
because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.
- 2 The cords of death entangled me; the grip of the grave took hold of me; *
I came to grief and sorrow.
- 3 Then I called upon the Name of the Lord: * “O Lord, I pray you, save my life.”

- 4 Gracious is the Lord and righteous; *
our God is full of compassion.
- 5 The Lord watches over the innocent; *
I was brought very low, and he helped me.
- 6 Turn again to your rest, O my soul, *
for the Lord has treated you well.
- 7 For you have rescued my life from death, *
my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.
- 8 I will walk in the presence of the Lord *
in the land of the living.
- 9 I believed, even when I said, “I have been brought very low.” *
In my distress I said, “No one can be trusted.”
- 10 How shall I repay the Lord *
for all the good things he has done for me?
- 11 I will lift up the cup of salvation *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.
- 15 I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.
- 16 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people.

Song or Hymn

Suggested O God, our help in ages past (The Hymnal 1982)
You shall walk the barren desert (Wonder, Love, and Praise)
Precious Lord, take my hand (Lift Every Voice and Sing II)
Bless the Lord, my soul (Taizé)
Healer of our every ill (Gather, The Faith We Sing)
Great is thy faithfulness (Lift Every Voice and Sing II)

Dismissal

Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine; glory to God from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever.

Amen. Ephesians 3:20, 21

or this

Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God, as you hung upon the cross in agony, remember our suffering and sorrow, our sin and loss. Heal and restore us, merciful Savior, and bring us to everlasting glory with the Father and the Holy Spirit, in your land where there is no sorrow and sighing, but the fullness of life for ever more. Amen.

The people depart in silence.

A Liturgy of Healing and Hope

Officiant Bless the Lord, all angels, all hosts of heaven, all ministers of God's will.
People Bless the Lord, O my soul, and let all within me bless God's holy name.

A song or canticle of God's healing love may be sung.

These canticles from Enriching Our Worship I are especially appropriate:

A Song of Jerusalem Our Mother

Isaiah 66:10-14

Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her *
all you who love her, Rejoice, rejoice with her, *
all you who mourn over her,
That you may drink deeply with delight *
from her comforting breast.
For thus says our God, *
"I will extend peace to her like a river, the wealth of nations like an overflowing stream.
"You shall nurse and be carried on her arm,
and you shall nestle in her lap.
"As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; *
you shall be comforted in Jerusalem.
"You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice, * you shall flourish like the grass of the fields."

A Song of Christ's Goodness

Anselm of Canterbury

Jesus, as a mother you gather your people to you; *
you are gentle with us as a mother with her children.

Often you weep over our sins and our pride, *
tenderly you draw us from hatred and judgment.
You comfort us in sorrow and bind up our wounds, *
in sickness you nurse us and with pure milk you feed us.
Jesus, by your dying, we are born to new life; *
by your anguish and labor we come forth in joy.
Despair turns to hope through your sweet goodness; *
through your gentleness, we find comfort in fear.
Your warmth gives life to the dead, *
your touch makes sinners righteous.
Lord Jesus, in your mercy, heal us; *
in your love and tenderness, remake us.
In your compassion, bring grace and forgiveness, *
for the beauty of heaven, may your love prepare us.

A Song of True Motherhood

Julian of Norwich

God chose to be our mother in all things * and so made the foundation of his work, most humbly and most pure, in the Virgin's womb.
God, the perfect wisdom of all, *
arrayed himself in this humble place.
Christ came in our poor flesh *
to share a mother's care.
Our mothers bear us for pain and for death; *
our true mother, Jesus, bears us for joy and endless life.
Christ carried us within him in love and travail, *
until the full time of his passion.
And when all was completed and he had carried us so for joy, * still all this could not satisfy the power of his wonderful love.
All that we owe is redeemed in truly loving God, *
for the love of Christ works in us;
Christ is the one whom we love.

The Collect

Presider God be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray

Most holy God, as a father has compassion on his children, so do you have mercy on us. As a mother carries and feeds her children, so do you carry us in our afflictions, heal us, and nurture us. Holy One, hear our cry and renew us in your love, through Christ who has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows, in whom all things are redeemed for eternal life. Amen.

The Ministry of the Word

The readings should include at least one from Scripture. If the Eucharist is to be celebrated, a reading from the Gospel must be included. A psalm, hymn, or silent reflection follows each lesson. See appendix A, pages 71 – 78 for suggested Scripture readings. See appendix B, pages 79 – 85, for suggested hymns.

A homily may be preached.

The Healing Action

If there is to be laying on of hands [and anointing], the following form is used.

If oil for anointing is to be blessed, the priest says

Blessed are you, O God, source of life and health. In Jesus you became flesh and came to know the depth of human suffering. You sent the disciples to heal those who were sick. Sanctify this oil that all who are anointed with it may be healed, strengthened, and renewed, by the power of your Holy Spirit. Amen.

The minister may introduce the laying on of hands [and anointing] with these or similar words

The ministry of Jesus invites us to new life in God and with each other. In the laying on of hands [and anointing] we proclaim the Good News that God promises to restore us to wholeness in Christ. You are invited to offer yourself and ask for healing in the name of the holy and undivided Trinity.

The minister may invite each person to be anointed to give her or his name and any particular request for prayer. The minister then lays hands upon each person [and anoints the person], prays silently, then prays aloud using one of the following forms or similar words

N., I [anoint you and] lay my hands upon you in the name of God the holy and undivided Trinity. May Christ be present with you to comfort you, to guard and protect you, and to keep you in everlasting life. Amen.

or this

N., I lay my hands upon you [and anoint you] in the name of our Savior Jesus Christ, praying you will be strengthened and filled with God's grace, that you may know the healing power of the Spirit. Amen.

The minister may add, in these or similar words

As you are outwardly anointed with this holy oil, so may our loving God give you the inward anointing of the Holy Spirit. Of God's bounty, may your suffering be relieved, and your spirit, mind, and body restored to grace and peace. May all of us in the frailty of our flesh know God's healing and resurrecting power. Amen.

The Memorial

Mourners may be given time to talk about their loss, grief, and healing.

Symbols of loss, grief, and hope may be placed on an altar. Prayers, poems, or other writings may be read.

There may be silence, journal writing, or creation of memorial objects.

Litany of Healing and Hope

In place of this litany, another litany or other prayers may be used.

Weeping may spend the night, but joy comes with the morning.

For the losses we have endured,
Hear our cry, O God.
For miscarried babies and unborn hopes,
Hear our cry, O God.
For those children we will never know,
Hear our cries, O God.
For broken hearts and broken lives,
Hear our cries, O God.
For wounded innocence and shattered dreams,
Hear our cries, O God.

During a brief silence, particular griefs may be named.

When we are weary or lost,
O Christ, lead us home.
When we are hopeless and sad
O Christ, lead us home.
When we are angry and tears become our food
O Christ, lead us home.
When we are faithless and fearful
O Christ, lead us home.
When we grieve and despair
O Christ, lead us home.
Because you have been our companion in sorrow,
Holy Spirit, give us peace.
Because every child you have made lives forever,
Holy Spirit, give us peace.
Because suffering can make us kinder and more courageous,
Holy Spirit, give us peace.
Because nothing can separate us from your goodness,
Holy Spirit, give us peace.

Because you pray within us ceaselessly,
Holy Spirit, give us peace.

Weeping may spend the night, but joy comes with the morning;
Holy God, we bless your name.
You remove our mourning clothes and dress us in gladness;
Mighty God, we bless your name.
You will turn our lament into dancing;
Loving God, we bless your name.
You forgive all our sins and heal our infirmities;
Immortal God, we bless your name.
You renew us in your loving-kindness;
We are your people and you are our God.

Hear our cries, O God. Heal and restore us. Fill us with your peace. In all things remind us of your love, for the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

A hymn may be sung.

If the service continues with the Eucharist, the Peace is now exchanged.

If the Eucharist is not to be celebrated, the service concludes with the Lord's Prayer, a blessing, and a dismissal.

(From Enriching Our Worship 2)

9. Following a Stillbirth, or Death Shortly after Birth

Jeremiah 29:11

Life-giving God, you have given me the gift of this child. Before she was conceived in the womb, you knew her. She is surrounded by your love, and for love's sake we entrust her to those who will raise her. Guide and protect her all the days of her life. May she live and grow in grace as your beloved; we pray in the name of your Child Jesus, our Savior. Amen.

23. For the Birth Parents

Gracious God, may your mercy uphold N. as she sends this child born of her body to new parents who will nurture and raise him. As our love goes with him, surround N. also with your love. May she have your peace in her heart. May her spirit find rest in your unchanging presence. In Jesus' holy name we pray. Amen.

Holy God, send your blessing upon the birth parents of our child. Give them an abiding awareness of your love. Lead them into a future bright with promise. May they always rest in the certainty of your loving care for them, and for the child they have entrusted to us. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

24. A Birth Mother's Prayer

Heal my heart, dear God. I send forth my daughter, born of my body, to the family who will love and raise her. A part of her will always remain with me. Give me grace to live each day knowing you uphold her and me in strength, guidance, and mercy. I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, my Redeemer. Amen.

25. For Help in Selecting Adoptive Parents

Loving God, our Creator, you knew this child when he was formed in the womb, and have numbered the hairs on his head. Help us discern a family in which he will thrive, growing up as the person you created him to be. Even now, prepare the hearts and home of his future parents, granting that their lives will be blessed with goodness and peace; through Christ our Savior. Amen.

26. Saying Good-Bye to a Child

N., my child, go in the light and love of God.

May you learn justice, kindness, and humility; and live them. Amen.
May you experience the gift of love. Amen.
May you come to know the risen Christ. Amen
May you encounter the Holy Spirit who dwells within you. Amen.
May you have a full life, and come at length to rest in your heavenly home. Amen.

God who watches every moment of our days; I commend this child N. to your care. Before she was mine, she is yours. You gave her life. Be her protector, companion, and guide. Grant that her adoptive parents may love her as their own. May she flourish in their care as she grows in your wisdom. Keep her safe and well; make her strong and true. ## 27. For Help in Deciding Whether to Adopt

O God, as a loving parent you have made us your own children through adoption into Christ. Guide us as we decide whether to adopt, to share the love you have given us with a child. Give us humility to make this decision wisely, for the sake of Jesus Christ, your Child, in the grace of your Holy Spirit. Amen.

28. When the Decision Has Been Made to Adopt

Heavenly Father, all the peoples of the earth are one family in you: bless our decision to adopt. Help us freely and gladly share our lives, our love, and our home with a child who needs us. Remind our family in times of doubt or frustration that every moment is filled with your grace. Surround this decision and those to come with your steadfast love; through Christ who took little children to himself. Amen.

Holy God, in my heart there is a place of longing and questions about the child/parents I never knew. My eyes have not seen her/them, my arms have not held her/them, yet we are related. ## Prayers Surrounding Other Losses

30. After Mastectomy

Christ came in our poor flesh to share a mother's care.
Our mothers bear us for pain and for death;
our true mother, Jesus, bears us for joy and endless life.
From "A Song of True Motherhood," Julian of Norwich

God of tender mercy, hear my prayer. I grieve the loss of my breast(s), a change to my body and to my sense of self as a woman. Help me to remember that you made me in your image and that in you I am made whole, despite all wounds. Give me confidence and fill me with hope in all that lies ahead. I pray through Christ who, like a mother, bears us for joy and endless life. Amen.

31. In a Difficult Pregnancy

He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep. Isaiah 40:11

Good shepherd of the flock, tender Jesus, carry N. [and N.] through the perils of this pregnancy. Strengthen their trust that you are at work in this and every circumstance, and encourage them with your grace. Keep alive the flame of hope that you are present with them and with this child you knit together in the womb. Fill them with confidence in God the Creator and comfort in the Holy Spirit, for your tender mercy's sake. Amen.

See also the "Blessing of a Pregnant Woman" page 19.

32. After a Traumatic Birth

Life-giving Christ, be our faithful and loving companion in every moment of our lives. Visit N. with your healing grace. Heal the pain and trauma she has undergone through this birth. As you labored in agony on the cross so she suffered in labor. Now bring her the joy of new life that nothing can take away. Let your angels watch over this mother and child as they heal and rest. In the days to come, help N. know your promise that weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning. So may this mother and child rise to give you thanks tomorrow and always, secure in you, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit, reign throughout all ages. Amen.

33. When a Child Has Been Born with Special Needs

God of creation, you made all peoples of the earth one family; we thank you for N., a child created in your love and a precious gift to his family. Bring N. fullness of joy. Make him a witness to your compassion for all your creation and a blessing to those who know him. Sustain his family and all those who care for him in their anxieties and questions. Give them grace to love this child with your love and increase their faith and knowledge of you. Enable us who love them to provide support and comfort, through the power of your holy and life-giving Spirit, through Christ who loves all children. Amen.

God the creator of us all, we give you thanks for the life of this child. Grant us accepting and understanding hearts, and the gifts of courage and patience to face the challenge of caring for her. Let your love for us be seen in our lives, that we may create an atmosphere in which she will live a life of dignity and worth. We ask this in the name of Jesus, the compassionate. Amen. (From A New Zealand Prayer Book, page 756)

34. Confession and Assurance of Pardon

This form may be used by a lay or ordained confessor with a penitent or at other times when an entire liturgical rite is not needed.

Holy God, Holy and Mighty: I confess that in my sinfulness I have wounded the body of Christ, and both brought grief and injury to others and to myself, [especially, I confess _____]. Holy Immortal One, lift the weight of this burden from my shoulders; forgive, cleanse, and renew me; and put a new and right spirit within me, according to your mercy and loving-kindness; through the grace of Jesus Christ my Savior. Amen.

Confessor's words of pardon

N., beloved child of God; through Jesus Christ the grace of God flows to you conferring forgiveness and absolution of all your sin, and raises you to renewed life by the power of the Holy Spirit working in you more than you dare ask for or imagine. Abide in peace; through Christ your faith has made you whole.

General Convention Statements on Childbirth and Abortion

Resolution Number: 1994-A054

Title: Reaffirm General Convention Statement on Childbirth and Abortion

Legislative Action Taken: Concurred as Substituted and Amended

Final Text:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That this 71st General Convention of the Episcopal Church reaffirms resolution C047 from the 69th General Convention, which states: All human life is sacred from its inception until death. The Church takes seriously its obligation to help form the consciences of its members concerning this sacredness. Human life, therefore, should be initiated only advisedly and in full accord with this understanding of the power to conceive and give birth which is bestowed by God. It is the responsibility of our congregations to assist their members in becoming informed concerning the spiritual and physiological aspects of sex and sexuality.

The Book of Common Prayer affirms that “the birth of a child is a joyous and solemn occasion in the life of a family. It is also an occasion for rejoicing in the Christian community” (p. 440). As Christians we also affirm responsible family planning. We regard all abortion as having a tragic dimension, calling for the concern and compassion of all the Christian community.

While we acknowledge that in this country it is the legal right of every woman to have a medically safe abortion, as Christians we believe strongly that if this right is exercised, it should be used only in extreme situations. We emphatically oppose abortion as a means of birth control, family planning, sex selection, or any reason of mere convenience.

In those cases where an abortion is being considered, members of this Church are urged to seek the dictates of their conscience in prayer, to seek the advice and counsel of members of the Christian community and where appropriate, the sacramental life of this Church.

Whenever members of this Church are consulted with regard to a problem pregnancy, they are to explore, with grave seriousness, with the person or persons seeking advice and counsel, as alternatives to abortion, other positive courses of action, including, but not limited to, the following possibilities: the parents raising the child; another family member raising the child; making the child available for adoption.

It is the responsibility of members of this Church, especially the clergy, to become aware of local agencies and resources which will assist those faced with problem pregnancies. We believe that legislation concerning abortions will not address the root of the problem. We therefore express our deep conviction that any proposed legislation on the part of national or state governments regarding abortions must take special care to see that the individual conscience is respected, and that the responsibility of individuals to reach informed decisions in this matter is acknowledged and honored as the position of this Church; and be it further

Resolved, That this 71st General Convention of the Episcopal Church express its unequivocal opposition to any legislative, executive, or judicial action on the part of local, state, or national governments that abridges the right of a woman to reach an informed decision about the termination of pregnancy or that would limit the access of a woman to safe means of acting on her decision.

Resolved, That the General Convention of the Episcopal Church call for the Church to embrace and minister to men and women who have participated in an abortion and who may feel the need for pastoral and sacramental ministries of this church; and be it further

Resolved, That the General Convention of the Episcopal Church urge parishes to become safe communities for women and men to talk about their abortion experience and to receive pastoral care directed at the healing process; and be it further

Resolved, That the General Convention of the Episcopal Church encourage its clergy to become informed about the symptoms and behaviors associated with postabortion stress; and be it further

Resolved, That the General Convention of the Episcopal Church direct parishes to make available contact information for
